Privacy Protection

My personal data are electronically stored and processed for member administration, member support and statutory work of the GDMB (the GDMB does not pass the data on to outsiders). The legal basis can be found in Art. 6 (1) b, f Data Protection Basic Regulation (DSGVO) and in our currently valid statutes. The current statutes can be found at <https://www.gdmb.de/satzung>.

- I agree to the recording of my data in the electronic, for members only visible, register of members (the data can be changed and deleted at any time by myself)
- I agree to the sending of information material and newsletters via electronic ways. This agreement can be canceled at any time via call, mail or letter.
- I agree to the publication of my personal data (title, name, address, date of birth) in our magazines. This agreement can be canceled at any time via call, mail or letter.

Cancellation of the membership is only three months to the end of the year possible, and is effective only after receiving a confirmation.
